Refugee Flow Cut Off From E. Germany

BERLIN, Aug. 14 (AP)—West Berliners clashed today with Communist East German forces at the Brandenburg Gate, a symbol of this city's division, in an angry challenge to Red orders that clamped off the flow of refugees.

A few stones were thrown at the Communist police and troops, West Berlin police said, and the Communists replied with three tear-gas bombs. Witnesses reported a contrary wind carried the gas fumes back toward the Communists.

The East German government closed the gate, the chief crossing point between East and West Berlin, and

President, Rusk Meet On Berlin

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (AP)—President Kennedy called in Secretary of State Dean Rusk today for a conference on the mounting crisis over Berlin—presumably to discuss countermeasures the Western powers may take against the Communist ban on the flight of refugees from Red rule into West Berlin.

In another development, Foy D. Kohler, assistant Secretary of State, arranged a meeting with the ambassadors of Britain, France and West Germany for mid-afternoon to discuss actions the West may take beyond the lodging of a formal protest with the Soviet commander in East Berlin.

The range of actions, diplomats said, includes a possible retaliatory ban on travel from West Germany to East Germany—which could be a blow to the East Ger-severed telephone connections with the West.

Communist factory militiamen in olive drab uniforms stood behind each of the gate's five archways, with rifles held across their chests. Personnel carriers with steel-helmeted troops of the East German People's Army stood nearby.

Navy to Extend Tours of 26,800

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (UPI)—The Navy announced that 26,800 officers and men will be on active duty for six to 12 months beyond their tours as part of the U.S. preparedness buildup. Authority for extensions of the tours was announced by President Kennedy in a Congressional resolution.
