BERLIN (UPI) — East German police closed the border between East and West Berlin early today. The move came after a record number of more than 2,500 refugees fled the Communist zone yesterday.

At the same time the Communists ordered some 62,000 East Germans who work in West Berlin to give up their jobs immediately.

The city's border was sealed off by the Communists an hour after the Soviet bloc announced that East Germans had been authorized to establish effective control over the East-West frontier.

EAST GERMAN police set up traffic blocks and closed elevated train service across the border.

As a further insurance that no traffic would go through, East Berlin gunmen began to tip up a street leading to the Potsdamer Platz crossing point. They piled up the displaced paving stones to form
